Closing Remarks—Dr. Kerry Odell

James M. Hoey

Jim was born in Cumberland, MD. He graduated from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in 1967 with a Bachelor of Science degree and graduated from Frostburg State University in 1973 with a Master of Science degree.

His previous work experience included working as a Systems Engineer at Litton Industries, a Systems Analyst at Kelly-Springfield and a Third Mate at various American Steamship companies.

In 1975 Jim was hired as an Assistant Professor and in 1990 became a full Professor of Computer Science and Information Technology. Also, during the years 1975 to 1998 he served as the Computer Center Coordinator. He has served sixteen years as the PSC representative to Higher Education Policy Commission Advisory Council of Faculty.

He is a member of the Fort Ashby Lions Club, Frankfort District Historical Society, Mineral County Historical Society and a Civil War Roundtable.

Jim's family includes his wife Linda and two sons, Adam and Ryan.

Golf, tennis, and researching local history are his pastimes.

Jim retired from the U.S. Naval Reserve with 24 years of service and is retiring from Potomac State College of WVU with 37 years of service.

Randy G. Leatherman

Randy was hired in 1987 as a Custodian but has worked in several departments including as a Lead Farm Worker, a Laborer, a Building Service Worker, a Campus Service Worker, a Locksmith and a Trades Specialist I and II.

William M. Letrent

Bill, a life long resident of Bedford, PA, received his BA in Psychology from Duquesne University in 1983 and his M.Ed in Guidance & Counseling from Frostburg State University in 1985. He worked as an editor, for BHelm Consulting and Grant Writing Services; as a Field Reader, US Department of Education; and as a Consultant, Council for Opportunity in Education.

He served as the Director of Student Support Services and the Director of Upward Bound before serving as an Interim Dean of Student Affairs. His current position is Dean of Student Affairs. He has received the Outstanding Service Award, Mid-Eastern Association of Educational Opportunity Program Personnel in 1993, 1996 and 1998.

He holds membership in the Association of Student Conduct Administrators, National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, WV Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and the National Behavior Intervention Team Association.

He and his wife, Tonia D. Letrent, have two daughters, Elizabeth Grace Letrent and Shannon Rose Letrent.

Bill states, "When I have time I like to hunt deer and turkey, saltwater fish, ride my motorcycle, go to the beach, camp, watch Tar Heel basketball, go to Steelers' games, go to Springsteen concerts, and last but certainly not least, spend quality time doing things or just spending time with my wife and kids."

Cline E. Slaubaugh

Cline was born in Horse Shoe Run, WV and graduated from Aurora High School in 1970. He worked for various contractors building houses and/or remodeling in the Horse Shoe Run, Parkersburg, and Keyser areas from 1970-1982.

At Potomac State College of WVU he has worked in various areas of the maintenance department for the past 30 years, including plumbing, carpentry, general maintenance, and currently heating and air conditioning as a Lead Trades Specialist I.

Cline is an avid deer hunter and also enjoys fishing and ATV riding. He is a member of the Church of Christ and the AFT Union.

An interesting fact about Cline is he served in the Army National Guard for 15 years.

Cline has been married to Susan for 37 years and they have two sons. Randy has two children, Tyler and Tierra, and son Shawn and wife Marla have two children, Dylan and Brooke.

Lalitha Subramanian

Lalitha was born in Madras, India and received the following degrees: B.Science in 1970 from the University of Madras, B.Ed in 1983 from the University of Mumbai, M. Sc in 1991 from the University of Mumbai and a Ph.D in 2005 from the University of Central Florida. Previously she taught high school and became Principal of Mumbai High School, taught math in Dubai and was a teaching assistant at the University of Central Florida.

Lalitha started at PSC as an Assistant Professor in 2005 and became an Associate Professor in 2011. She belongs to the AMATYC-Cohort 3 of Project ACCESS and is a CTCM member.

Lalitha has a 33-year-old son who lives in Northern Virginia with his wife and daughter and who works at MITRE. Lalitha's 37-year-old daughter received a PhD from the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee and lives in India with her husband who is an instructor and their two daughters.

In her spare time she enjoys playing Indian classical music on the keyboard, and on a string instrument called "Veena". She also browses the internet and plays Sudoku.

Lalitha plans to return to India with her retired spouse.

“Good friends are like stars.
You don’t always see them
but you know they are always there.”

Unknown

“No person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave.”

President Calvin Coolidge
